Admiral Stansfield Turner
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Admiral Turner:

I want to express again my thanks to you for the fine work that you did to aid the passage of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act in the House. Without your help, we could not have been assured that this landmark piece of legislation would have become a reality.

In particular, I want to thank you for your great effort to ensure support for the bill during the critical votes.

I would also like to note the excellent contribution of Fred Hitz, [redacted] of your staff, whose work with Justice Department attorneys has received high praise.

25X1

Best regards.

Sincerely,
